BRISTOL – Mark Moriarty, of Bristol, and Andrea Wasley, of Plainville, and Jennifer O’Connor, of Southington, have joined the Board of Directors at the Main Street Community Foundation.

At Main Street Community Foundation’s 25th Annual Meeting, held virtually in March, the Foundation welcomed Moriarty, Wasley and O’Connor to its Board of Directors.

Andrea Wasley has joined the Board of Directors at the Main Street Community Foundation - The Main Street Community Foundation

Moriarty is a Bristol resident and Executive Director of The First Tee of Connecticut. The Board of Directors plays an essential role in guiding the Foundation’s work and Moriarty, who will serve a three-year term, will act as a liaison between the Bristol community and the Foundation. Moriarty also serves as a member of the Foundation’s Scholarship Committee.

Wasley is a lifelong Plainville resident and owner of Plainville Funeral Home. Wasley will serve a two-year term, will act as a liaison between the Plainville community and the Foundation. Wasley also serves as a member of the Plainville Community Fund Advisory Council, an endowed fund at the Foundation.

O’Connor is a longtime Southington resident and brings years of nonprofit and private foundation board and management experience to the Community Foundation. O’Connor, who will serve a three-year term, will act as a liaison between the Southington community and the Foundation.

“We are grateful for Mark, Andrea and Jenn’s generous commitment of time and the valuable expertise they bring to the Foundation,” said Susan Sadecki, president and CEO of the Main Street Community Foundation.

The Foundation has established a COVID-19 Response Fund to rapidly deploy flexible resources to organizations in all communities served affected by the pandemic.

“Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is critical now more than ever that we know the current and emerging needs in each of our communities so that we can respond quickly and effectively,” said Sadecki.

The Main Street Community Foundation serves Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott.

The Community Foundation Board of Directors consists of 21 community leaders charged with ensuring donors’ intentions are fulfilled in perpetuity while meeting the needs of the local communities.
