BRISTOL – Main Street Community Foundation is offering a new scholarship.

“Graduating high school seniors who are legally blind or visually impaired and residents of Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington or Wolcott are eligible,” stated the foundation.

Applications for this Bristol Lions Club/James J. Keating Scholarship Fund are being accepted through June 3.

“The Bristol Lions Club/James J. Keating Scholarship Fund was established by the Bristol Lions Club in 2022 with a bequest previously received from the estate of Mark M. Keating. The scholarship honors the memory of Keating’s father, James J. Keating,” said the foundation.

To apply, visit the Foundation’s online application website at MSCFscholarships.communityforce.com and click on Bristol Lions Club/James J. Keating Scholarship Fund.

For more information, or questions about applying for this scholarship, contact Samantha Rajotte, scholarship & program officer at the Main Street Community Foundation at 860-583-6363 or samantha@mainstreetfoundation.org.
