

https://www.newbritainherald.com/news/area-organizations-receive-153k-in-grants-to-benefit-the-community/article_17874e36-4614-11ef-a1db-a70b22a2d191.html

Area organizations receive $153K in grants to benefit the community

BRIAN M. JOHNSON @brianjohnsonBP

Jul 19, 2024

FILE

The Connecticut Humane Society received $1,000.

SOUTHINGTON — The Main Street Community Foundation has awarded more than $153,000 in grants to 44 area organizations through its general grant cycle.

Samantha Rajotte, scholarship and program officer with the Main Street Community Foundation, said the recipient organizations are those “working to improve the lives of Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott residents.” Grants, she said, were awarded to meet the various needs in the communities which the Main Street Community Foundation serves.

Read full story in the print or e-edition of The Herald.