Website: www.friendsburlib.org

The Burlington Library Association, Inc. is a local non-profit organization that has supported the Burlington Public Library for over 50 years. We help the library fund services that would otherwise not be funded; and, we rely on many additional volunteers throughout the year to help with special projects.

We raise money by holding an annual membership drive, fundraisers and book sales. Donations and time spent volunteering by the members of the Burlington Library Association are instrumental to the Library's vision to improve the quality of life for all Burlington residents.

Wishes: Donations of used or like-new items for the book sale may be dropped off directly at the Burlington Public Library. Monetary donations to help fund library services are greatly appreciated and may be made online at <http://www.friendsburlib.org/donations.htm>

Volunteer Opportunities: Volunteer help is needed throughout the year and the time commitment is very flexible. Opportunities include: sorting used book donations, working book sale shifts, managing online book sales through Amazon, baking cookies or casseroles, staffing events like Tavern Day or Summer Reading Kickoff, contributing to Facebook content, marketing, and our annual membership letter campaign. If you are interested, please email Kristen at kristen.williams@me.com.

Girl Scouts of Connecticut is nearly 33,000 members strong – over 22,000 girls and 11,000 adults – who believe that every girl can change the world.

We're part of a sisterhood of 2.5 million strong around the globe – 1.7 million girls and 750,000 adults who believe in the power of every G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)[™] to change the world.

Our extraordinary journey began more than 100 years ago with the original G.I.R.L., Juliette Gordon "Daisy" Low. On March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Georgia, she organized the very first Girl Scout troop. Since that date, we've honored Juliette's vision and legacy, building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place. As the preeminent leadership development organization for girls, we offer every girl a chance to practice a lifetime of leadership, adventure, and success.

The Plymouth Community Food Pantry provides food and referrals to those in need. We are dedicated to working in and with our community to end hunger, its causes and effects.

Wishes:

- Monetary donations allow us to continue to purchase food items from the Connecticut Food Bank. This purchasing power is integral to our success, because we can purchase large quantities of food at a much lower cost than the general public. For this reason, we encourage monetary donations. Five dollars may mean two or three items at the grocery store, but translates into two or three-hundred items the way we use it.

Big Wish:

- Stainless Steel Shelving Units

Volunteer Opportunities: Volunteering can take different forms:

- You may volunteer to stock the shelves or you may want to hold a food drive, do a neighborhood collection or host a dinner party to raise funds for the pantry. Your imagination is the limit and we are here to help you.
- We are always looking for volunteers to stock the shelves. Any age or skill level is welcome. No special training or skills are required. The times we need volunteers are as follows: Mondays 2-3pm, Every other Wednesday 12 noon - 3pm, Fridays 9-12 noon and the first Wednesday of each month from 4:30-5:30pm.

Southington Community Cultural Arts (SoCCA) strives to create a unique environment in which people of all ages and abilities can have a place to create, exhibit and welcome the arts into their lives. The 10,000 square foot Arts Center offers a variety of classes that include pottery, painting, drawing, music, weaving and jewelry making. The space is also used by various civic groups and organizations for meetings and workshops. One of SoCCA's most successful programs is the All Access program which teaches creative work skills to adults with disabilities and provides opportunities for them to sell their products in SoCCA's gift store and at other venues.

Wishes:

- A safe and happy holiday for everyone and peace on earth
- Monetary donations
- Masks for use by public

The Southington Community YMCA is a powerful association of men, women, and children of all ages and from all walks of life joined together by a shared passion to strengthen the foundations of community. With the commitment to nurture the potential of kids, promote healthy living, and foster a sense of social responsibility, the Y ensures that every individual has access to the essentials to learn, grow, and thrive. Anchored in it more than 9,000 members and 700 volunteers, the Y has the long-standing relationships and physical presence not just to promise, but to deliver, lasting personal and social change.

Wishes: Monetary gifts for the Y's Annual Campaign go directly to make YMCA programs and memberships available to those in need. Financial assistance keeps the Y available for kids and families who need us most. Capital Campaign gifts are being requested for the Save Sloper Pond project at YMCA Camp Sloper to dredge the pond and make environmental and programmatic improvements to the facility.

Volunteer Opportunities: Committee volunteers, program volunteers, policy volunteers and special event volunteers.

UWWCC advances the common good by creating lasting changes to improve lives by focusing on education, income, and health in Bristol, Burlington, Plainville and Plymouth.

Wishes: We are in need of toys and gifts to support the United Way's Joy of Sharing Holiday Toy and Gift Drive. Our goal is to collect over 3,000 toys to be distributed to less fortunate children ages 3 to 14 who reside in Bristol, Burlington, Plainville and Plymouth. We accept new, unwrapped toys or gifts. We have difficulty in particular in securing enough gifts for the older children ages 8-14.

2020 Donation Information: You may drop off your donations at the United Way of West Central Connecticut located at 440 North Main Street, Executive Suites in Bristol. Collection dates are Thursday, December 3rd; Friday, December 4th; Monday, December 7th; and Tuesday, December 8th between the hours of 9:00am to 4:00pm.

When you arrive at the United Way office, please pull up to the tent. A staff member or volunteer will unload the toys from your vehicle. If another car is ahead of you, please wait inside of your vehicle until you are able to pull up. Please call 860-582-9559 if you have any questions.
