The Burlington Library Association, Inc. is a local non-profit organization that has supported the Burlington Public Library for over 50 years. We help the library fund services that would otherwise not be funded; and, we rely on many additional volunteers throughout the year to help with special projects.

We raise money by holding an annual membership drive, fundraisers and book sales. Donations and time spent volunteering by the members of the Burlington Library Association are instrumental to the Library's vision to improve the quality of life for all Burlington residents.

Wishes: Donations of used or like-new items for the book sale may be dropped off directly at the Burlington Public Library. Monetary donations to help fund library services are greatly appreciated and may be made online at <http://www.friendsburlib.org/donations.htm>

Volunteer Opportunities: Volunteer help is needed throughout the year and the time commitment is very flexible. Opportunities include: sorting used book donations, working book sale shifts, managing online book sales through Amazon, baking cookies or casseroles, staffing events like Tavern Day or Summer Reading Kickoff, contributing to Facebook content, marketing, and our annual membership letter campaign. If you are interested, please email Kristen at kristen.williams@me.com.

Girl Scouts of Connecticut is nearly 33,000 members strong – over 22,000 girls and 11,000 adults – who believe that every girl can change the world.

We're part of a sisterhood of 2.5 million strong around the globe – 1.7 million girls and 750,000 adults who believe in the power of every G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)[™] to change the world.

Our extraordinary journey began more than 100 years ago with the original G.I.R.L., Juliette Gordon "Daisy" Low. On March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Georgia, she organized the very first Girl Scout troop. Since that date, we've honored Juliette's vision and legacy, building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place. As the preeminent leadership development organization for girls, we offer every girl a chance to practice a lifetime of leadership, adventure, and success.

The Plymouth Community Food Pantry provides food and referrals to any resident of Plymouth in need. Residents may shop, pick up curbside or have their order delivered. All options are by appointment. Simply call our number, leave a message and we will return your call as soon as possible. We are dedicated to working in and with our community to end hunger.

Wishes:

- Monetary Donations: We have established relations with the Connecticut Food Bank and other wholesale distributors in our area. These relationships have provided us with the purchasing power to obtain fresh dairy, produce, meats, poultry, and fish at very reasonable prices. Your dollars will go further with our purchasing power.
- Gift Cards: Denominations of $25 or $50 enable us to help new clients get back on their feet and assist residents who have hit bumps in the road. Cards from Adams Hometown Market have proved to be of great benefit because they are a local store, and many clients do not have transportation. However, we have also found gift cards from large grocery stores and clothing stores to be of use too.
- Nonperishable Foods: We post a list of the top five nonperishable item in need on our Facebook page and our website.
- Appliances: We accept lightly used freezers and refrigerators. The more refrigeration we have, the more perishable items we can store. Please send us a picture to help us decide if we can accept your donation.

Volunteer Opportunities: Volunteering takes many shapes and forms. We can use help in the following areas: Wednesdays between the hours of 10:00 -1:00 we receive our weekly delivery. We need help lifting heavy boxes. Monday, Wednesdays, and Friday are the days we are open for clients. We can always use people to help shoppers, deliver orders, shop for households and stock shelves. We are renovating our facility. Once completed we will need someone to maintain the cleanliness of the Pantry and its facilities.
