

Foundation accepting nonprofit grant applications

PLAINVILLE/SOUTHINGTON — The Main Street Community Foundation is accepting applications from nonprofit organizations seeking grants for programs that benefit the communities of Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington, and Wolcott.

ADVERTISEMENT
Article continues below this ad

Various grant applications can be accessed at mainstreetfoundation.org/apply-for-grant, which includes grant guidelines.

Interested organizations should contact Kate Kerchaert, director of grants and programs, at kate@mainstreetfoundation.org, or Alicia Krar, grants manager, at alicia@mainstreetfoundation.org or 860-583-6363 for a preliminary discussion of their proposal at least one week prior to the respective grant deadline.

Meriden-New Britain-Berlin YMCA staff changes

MERIDEN — This year, the Meriden-New Britain-Berlin YMCA welcomed a new staff member and promoted a current one.

ADVERTISEMENT
Article continues below this ad

Connecticut native Aimee Robinson is the new program director of the New Britain YMCA Child Care Academy at 111 Hart St., and Wallingford native and former director Anthony Cortright was promoted to senior program director.

×

Skip Ad

0:41 / 1:00