The Bristol-based foundation is inviting nonprofit organizations serving Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington, and Wolcott to apply.

Grant proposals must fall within three program areas: basic needs, access to opportunity, and vibrant communities. They must benefit residents in the foundation's service area.

In addition to its primary funding priorities, the foundation has designated funds available for specific uses, including the care and support of animals; sports field maintenance in Bristol and Burlington; programs and projects benefiting the Burlington community; and non-sport, noncompetitive programs and activities for elementary and middle school students in Southington.

Organizations interested in applying must review eligibility requirements and application guidelines on the foundation's website. Whitney Shufelt, director of grants and program manager, for a preliminary discussion at 860-234-1234.
