Scholarship applications for students in Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott seeking financial support are now being accepted by the Main Street Community Foundation, it was announced recently. The deadline for all scholarship applications is March 6, at 11:59 p.m.

These scholarships are available to graduating high school seniors, current college students and adult learners who are or will be attending two- or four-year colleges or universities, career certification programs or technical/vocational schools, the release stated. There are also scholarships available for students attending private elementary and secondary schools in Bristol.

A full list of available scholarships, their eligibility criteria, and the link to the online application portal are available on the MSCF website: mainstreetfoundation.org/apply-for Each scholarship has unique eligibility criteria defined by the donors who established the funds. Criteria can include items such as interests and career goals, academic achievement, financial need, and town residence. All applications are reviewed by a volunteer committee through a competitive, blinded application process, and recommendations on recipients are made to the Foundation's Board of Directors based on the established criteria of each fund.

Any questions or for more information, contact Samantha Rajotte, scholarship and program officer, at (860)583-6363 x155 or samantha@mainstreetfoundation.org.
