The Main Street Community Foundation has awarded more than $144,000 in grants to area organizations.

$144,200 was recently awarded through the Foundation's general grant cycle.

“A total of 44 organizations working to improve the lives of Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott residents were awarded the grants,” said Samantha Rajotte, scholarship & program officer with the Main Street Community Foundation. “The grants will help these organizations further their reach and impact by meeting the needs of residents, from food insecurity to collaborative creative programs.”
