^ Antha Rajotte, scholarship and program officer at the Main Street Community Foundation said that Lanese, who lives in Wolcott but works at Barnes in Bristol, was recently elected to the organization's Board of Directors.

"MSCF serves Bristol and its surrounding communities," she said. "Its Board members play a critical role in not only guiding the Foundation's work but informing the Foundation on pressing issues in the communities."

Lanese is currently the Director of Global Talent Acquisition & Development for Barnes in Bristol.

"She is also an avid volunteer with organizations, running the gamut of interests and motivations from the Girls Scouts of America to Relay for Life," said Rajotte. "Andrea will not only be bringing her perspective as a Wolcott resident, but will also bring her leadership and problem-solving skills to our Board and the local community."
