In addition to the above, two Southington students were awarded scholarships from the Keating-Monaghan Memorial Scholarship Fund and Lena M. & Peter L. Korotie Scholarship Fund.

These scholarships assist elementary/secondary school students attending or planning to attend St. Joseph School and St. Paul Catholic High School, respectively.

The majority of these scholarship grants were awarded during MSCF's June 24 Scholarship Reception at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel, Bristol, where it was announced that this year's scholarship awards total $360,000.

The reception, which is held annually to celebrate the recipients and thank the generous donors, was attended by over 175 people.

Southington's students were among 194 residents who received scholarship awards from the foundation's scholarship program.

They are in various stages of their academic careers, from elementary school students to college students.

They will be continuing their education with the assistance of these scholarships in the fields of business, health care, criminal justice, journalism, education, engineering, visual arts, skilled trades, and more.

MSCF administers over 100 named scholarship funds that have all been established by local individuals, families, businesses, or other organizations.
