CT grower hopes to be the ‘Sally’s pizza’ of marijuana

Becky Goetsch has been farming cannabis for CBD. Now she hopes to cultivate legal, recreational, THC-heavy marijuana.

Pollick, who died in 1973, promoted and coached Torrington youth sports all his life, with a particular fondness for Babe Ruth Baseball. As a result, beyond good grades and citizenship, scholarship candidates are awarded bonus points for participation in Babe Ruth Baseball.

Heaney graduated from Wolcott Tech this year, fifth in a class of 132 with a 98.1 GPA.

She was also a member of the varsity volleyball and basketball teams while at Wolcott Tech. She earned All Berkshire League and All State Team 2 Honors for volleyball. Heaney also is a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council and a class representative. She has also volunteered her time for the community among many causes.

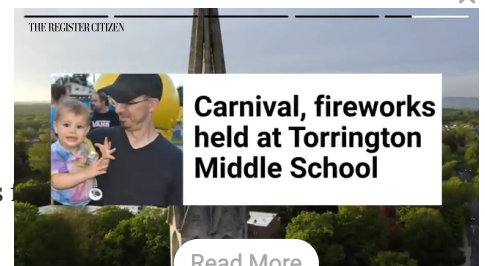

She is planning on attending the University of Saint Joseph in the fall, majoring in nursing.

Burlington students receive foundation scholarships

BURLINGTON — Five Burlington residents were recently awarded scholarships from the Burlington Foundation totaling $5,180.

Brianna Kelly, Brooke Kvedar and Joseph Mazzei each received a scholarship from the Burlington Lions Charities Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 2000 by the Burlington Lions Club to support post-secondary educational opportunities for Burlington residents. The Lions Club seeks students who represent good citizenship and commitment to their community through volunteer service.

Brooke Fitzgerald and Lauren Fitzgerald each received a scholarship from Yarde Metals Memorial Scholarship Fund. This scholarship was established in 2005 by the management and employees of Yarde Metals to benefit the children of employees who wish to pursue some type of post-secondary education.

In total, the foundation awarded $256,615 in scholarships this year to 140 students at varying levels of their academic careers. The students - graduating high school seniors, current college students, adults returning to school and elementary and secondary school students - hail from the towns of Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott as well as surrounding communities.
