

NEW HAVEN REGISTER <https://www.registercitizen.com/news/article/The-Doox-of-Yale-to-perform-in-Woodbury-13756788.php>

The Doox of Yale to perform in Woodbury

Published 1:51 pm EDT, Wednesday, April 10, 2019

The Doox of Yale Concert is scheduled for Sunday, April 28, 4 p.m. at the Woodbury Senior Community Center.

WOODBURY – The Doox of Yale Concert is scheduled for Sunday, April 28, 4 p.m. at the Woodbury Senior Community Center. Sponsored by the nonprofit Friends of Woodbury Senior Community Center, Inc., the Doox of Yale will offer a refreshing take on acCappella music to delight concert attendees of all ages.

Formerly known as the Duke's Men of Yale, the Doox of Yale now include females. The Doox of Yale have built on their predecessor's reputation, and are still known for their brilliant musicianship and keen ability to balance their down-to-earth sense of humor with their strong sense of professionalism. With an expansive repertoire and knack for high-energy, their performances sets them apart from their contemporaries. Consequently, "Da Doox" consistently impresses audiences.

The Doox of Yale concert is funded by the Woodbury Bethlehem Community Music Foundation, Inc., The Woman's Club of Woodbury and patrons. No reservations are needed and admission is no charge; donations are accepted.

Recommended Video

Spaces are limited and registration is required. To register, call 855-442-4313 or register online at HartfordHealthCare.org/Events.

NVCC to hold annual job fair

WATERBURY – Naugatuck Valley Community College's Center for Job Placement and College Opportunities is hosting its annual student and alumni Job and Career Fair on Thursday April, 11 in Café West on NVCC's Waterbury campus, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

A total of 40 area employers will be attending the fair this year. Employers will be searching for students and alumni for both job and internship opportunities. There will be a wide variety of industries represented such as accounting, criminal justice, and several allied health organizations. NVCC students and alumni are encouraged to dress professionally and bring extra copies of their resumes. A list of employers is available on collegecentral.com/nvcc.

For those who have questions or want to meet with a representative of the CJPCO prior to the event for a resume review consultation, contact either Allison Terry or Teri Smith at 203-575-8158 or email them at: cjpc@nv.edu. In addition, visit NVCC's website and click on "Student Resources" and then "Center for Job Placement and College Opportunities" to take the career survey.

Colebrook to host probate information session

COLEBROOK – Residents with questions about the probate process in Connecticut are invited to an information session at the Colebrook Senior and Community Center, Colebrook, April 18 at 12 p.m. The guest speaker is Judge Michael Magistrali for the Torrington Area Probate District.

Lunch will be served at 12 p.m. for $5 per person. The presentation is free. All are welcome.

For more information and to reserve a seat for the luncheon and/or the program, call 860 738-9521.

Sign up now for Shine On 5K

BURLINGTON – The 9th annual Shine On 5K Race will be held Sunday, May 19, 11 a.m. at the Lewis Mills High School track.

The certified 5K race/walk will begin and end at Lewis Mills High School in Burlington. The one mile fun run (13 and under) will begin at 10:40. The ¼ mile Dolphin Dash begins on the Lewis Mills track at approximately 11:45.

We continue to be blessed with support from local businesses and community members. Due to success from past races, The Karen DuCotey Fund For Kids (operated by The Main Street Community Foundation) granted over $2,500 to children and families in need in the Region 10 area last year. This year, more than $3,500 is available for grants. In the past few years the Fund for Kids has provided warm winter coats, school supplies, camp opportunities, clothing, basic needs, driver's education courses and license expenses, yearbooks, after school opportunities, prescription assistance, field trip payment, prom tickets, tuxedo rentals and groceries for children and families in Burlington and Harwinton. Funds from the race were also used for The Karen DuCotey Memorial Award which is given annually to a college bound Lewis Mills senior interested in becoming an elementary educator.

For online race registration visit www.myburlingtonrec.com Online Registration ends Wednesday, May 15. Registration forms can also be submitted to the Burlington Park and Rec by mail or in person at the Park and Rec office. To download a registration form for mailing in please visit www.shineon5k.com. Race Day registration begins at 9:30 a.m. Those who register by April 29 receive a free T-shirt.

Colebrook Lions offer scholarship

COLEBROOK – The Colebrook Lions Club is currently accepting applications for the 2019 Scholarship awards. Applicants must be 2019 high school graduates who are Colebrook residents and have been accepted in a degree granting institution for the 2018-19 academic year. Submissions must be postmarked or submitted via email no later than April 26 and should be sent to:

Colebrook Lions Club Scholarship Committee, PO Box 258, Colebrook, CT 06021 or email colebrooklions@hotmail.com

Applications can be obtained through the guidance department, at the Colebrook Town Hall, or by contacting Steve Young at 860-379-1845.

© 2019 Hearst Communications, Inc.

HEARST