Guest speaker, Ayodele Casel is “a tap dancer and choreographer of extraordinary depth” (The New York Times). Born in The Bronx and raised in Puerto Rico, Ayodele began her professional training at NYU’s Tisch School of the Arts. Her origins in theater and love for storytelling and tap dance have significantly contributed to the narrative nature of her work, which is rooted in the expression of identity, culture, language, and communication. Ayodele is also a featured tap dancer honoring the art form of tap on a 2021 US Postal Service Forever Stamp.
