BRISTOL - Bringing history to life, expanding early literacy and meeting basic needs; those are a few ways that the recent grants awarded by Main Street Community Foundation will inspire, affect and touch the residents living and working in the communities of Bristol, Burlington, Plainville, Plymouth, Southington and Wolcott.

A total of 38 organizations representing a broad range of programs and projects received $125,060 in grant awards.

This is the result of the foundation's 2017 General Competitive Grant Cycle, which saw the submission of 49 grant proposals.

The grants were awarded from 26 endowed funds established by donors to support the local community and the causes they care about.

"We are thrilled to be announcing over $125,000 in grants, thanks to the generous donors who have established and built these unrestricted community and field of interest funds to bolster our communities and help our neighbors," said Susan Sadecki, president and CEO of the Community Foundation.

Sadecki also acknowledged the 24 local residents that comprise the Community Foundation's volunteer Distribution Committee.

"The Distribution Committee reviews all proposals, conducts site visits and makes the final funding recommendations to the Board of Directors," stated Sadecki. "Their thoughtful review of the applications to ensure feasibility and their commitment to honoring donor intent is unmatched."
